Garden Club and Islanders

The newly formed Garden Club has now met two times. We have asked the people who have “adopted an islan” to join us and most of them have chosen to do so. Our meetings are very free-flowing, no officers or agendas. Our plan, if there is one, is to gather once a month and share our gardening ideas, problems and special needs of “lake, zone 5-6” gardening. We are talking about a plant sharing of those perennials that have gotten too big for our yard and need splitting. Another idea is to use these plants to spruce up the Village Hall beds. Elaine Ford has shared her tree planting information and her wish list for Timberlake public gardens and islands. Special thanks to Villager, Lisa DeMilta and the DeMilta Company for their generous donation of mulch and decorative stones. The next meeting will be July 9th at the Village Hall, unless it is rented out, then we will meet at 19 East Shore Blvd., at 2:00 PM. The Bratenahl Garden Club will join us for this meeting to share our special lake growing challenges. Meet the Horticulturist from Willoughby Garden Center. All gardeners, would-be, use-to-be, wanta-be, and any other folds around that want to enjoy a few hours among friends are wlecome to attend.

Thank You

A special thank you to the young man who encouraged his friends to clean up their language oat the request of a fussy old lady. I enjoy the ounds of kids at play on our wonderful lakefront but do not enjoy the verbiage sometimes used by our teens. This young man should be commended for his actions. We sometimes forget these youngsters when we generalize the teenagers. I did not get his name but he knows who he is. Thank you again.

Timberlake Public Beach

Thanks to the group of Villagers and some "special folks" who met on the beach and gave up their Saturday morning to clean up before the summer season. They raked up, bagged, dug new fire pits and cut fire wood and generally spruced up the beach. Watch for the date for the next clean up before the 4th of July weekend. For those who use the beach remember that it is our/your beach! Please clean up after yourself, your kids, your dog. Trach containers are available and it is the plan of Council to do a better job of general cleaning, but we all must do our part.

Did you know?

The word picnic, (a French word meaning "picking") didn't originally refer to outdoor meals but to ones in which guests contributed the dishes--that is, they were potlucks. It was in the Victorian Era, around 1850s, that the term became linked without door open air eating.

- Women's safety and pepper spray training

. . . And Much More

BARBECUE PORK BURGERS

There's no bones about it! Makes 4 patties.

Heat the grill to medium-high. In bowl place 1-1/2 lbs. pork, 1 small red onion, minced, plus slices for serving, 1/4 cup barbecue sauce, (your favorite sauce), 1 teaspoon coarse salt, & 1/4 teaspoon black pepper. Mix very gently with fork to combine, being careful not to overwork meat (which would make burgers dense).

Gently form meat into 4 patties, salt & pepper both sides of patties, place on oiled grill, grill until cooked throughout, (do not press down on patties) 5-8 minutes per side.

Serve on (toasted on the grill) onion rolls with sliced onion and remaining barbecue sauce.

(To make more patties mix each 4 patties batch separately.)

EASY BARBECUE SAUCE FOR BARBECUE BURGERS

In medium saucepan heat 2 tablespoons vegetable oil. Add 1/4 cup finely chopped onions, cook, stirring until onions are soft, about 5 minutes. Stir in 1/2 cup ketchup, 1 tablespoon each dark brown sugar & red wine vinegar & 1 teaspoon chili powder. Bring to simmer. Remove from heat, stir in 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard.

Brush each burger every few minutes with a generous amount of sauce. Serve on onion rolls.
